SATURDAY 130PM

WORKSHOP CENTRAL

ESTABLISHING GOD IN PAGAN CULTURE

Sy Rogers

Stream: Mission & Justice

Venue: Room 4

Cultural relevance, while appreciated by modern church, must do more than be 'relatable' by method and style. True relevance comes from knowing what people in a society need, and from that one may bring light and God-solutions. In this session, Sy addresses key 'blind spots' that hinder effective ministry, both in discipleship and in reaching the world around us.

CROSS CULTURAL MISSION

Dean and Amanda

Stream: Mission & Justice

Venue: Room 5

Jesus' heart is for those suffering and in need. As we engage to listen and be with them, then we are also drawn into God's heart more intimately. Some of this will take us to "dark places", places where we don't have all the answers, scary places. The challenge to us all is to engage in the 'mission of being alongside', and to dream ... that we can work and live in God's adventure that 'His kingdom come, now as it is in heaven'.

MARRIAGE

Justin and Jenny

Duckworth

Stream: Christian Living

Venue: Room 4

Simple steps that could save your marriage! Why is it that the wonder of joy and closeness can be swamped with frustration and distance in our marriages?

Justin and Jenny will bring into this seminar 26 years worth of marital discovery, sharing some great steps you can take to strengthen your marriage.

OWN YOUR ZONE

Richard Black

Stream: Christian Living

Venue: Room 5

One of the most powerful skills relationally, in church, and in life is the ability to own your zone emotionally. In times of frustration and conflict it is easy to get stuck in blaming and in a sense of powerlessness. Other people and events then set your agenda, determine your reactions, and shape your behaviour. Owning your zone enables you to move beyond stuck, resolve conflict, and progress your life and relationships. As you grow in this ability it is easier to love your enemy, be proactive and thrive in life.
