JOIN THE SUMMER TEAM

16-20 JANUARY 2020

Welcome

We're so thrilled you're here. Plugged In is about a bunch of Kiwis coming to share, learn and grow together. Today you'll meet ordinary people from ordinary places who have the same heart as you (even some same weirdness), and who face similar issues.

There's something for everyone; all-in sessions, masterclasses, worship, teaching and ministry.

Our prayer is that by the end of the day you'll be refreshed, encouraged, and confident in the knowledge that by you stepping out and leading well, you bless not only your local church, but also the very heart of God.

LUNCH OPTIONS

We love to spend time meeting new people at Plugged In. What better way than to enjoy lunch together?

You've got options:

- 1. Wander out and find a cafe to enjoy with friends. With a whole hour to enjoy lunch this is almost doable.*
- 2. If you've brought your lunch you're welcome to eat at the church where the billy will be boiled and you'd be welcome to make yourself a cuppa.*

SOUND FOR MUSICIANS

Luke Raymond (Main Hall)

Essential audio concepts every musician should understand in a sound reinforced environment.

THEOLOGY IN OUR SONGS

Dan Sheed (Church)

If people remember the theology in our songs more than sermons, then how well do we know the sermons in our songs.

Speakers

DAN SHEED is a leader of the Central Vineyard, a community which is passionate about pursuing Jesus and playing their part in what God is doing in the world, right now. He gets out of bed to see the Church be all that it can and believes the big-picture of worship is one of the highest priorities for us in this time. Dan's a family man who likes his music fast and loud, and his theology books hard-covered.

FRASER MCDERMOTT was born in NZ and spent his early years in Hillsborough and Lynfield. During his gap year to the UK he surrendered his life to Christ. Returning in 2014, Fraser now leads St Margaret's Hillsborough. Fraser has a passion for worship, for equipping and training people into maturity in Christ, and for ministry of the Holy Spirit.

GRANT NORSWORTHY was an Aussie based in Nashville, Tennessee from 2002 to 2018 and has achieved success as a professional CCM musician including a Grammy® nomination, a Dove Award, extensive touring, recording and radio hits with bands like Paul Colman Trio and Sonicflood. Now based in Nelson, Grant uses his musicianship, freewheeling wit and uncommon candour to encourage audiences to deeper faith in Christ.

JO SHANAHAN is a professional performer, director and vocal/voice coach who has been involved in the entertainment industry (dance, music, stage, film, TV) for 35 years, in NZ and overseas. Jo is known for her professional knowledge in the kinetics of voice. Aside from being a leading NZ voice coach, she is a mum, loves horses, the beach and a good muso jam.

JOHN CORBAN is the International Financial Officer for Langham Partnership, which supports the development of Christian leaders in Asia-Pacific. Never without a smile, John enjoys leading others in worship and sharing life's experience with people. He also enjoys exploring various craft beers becoming a bit of a connoisseur.

JULIAN BROWNE has been involved in worship teams for over 15 years in roles such as the lead music director and co-ordinator for Church Unlimited, overseeing more than 80 different musicians and singers. This experience has been carried into the Auckland City campus which he now leads with the support of his wife and young family.

LUKE RAYMOND is a missionary kid from Africa who trained as a live sound engineer working for an Idaho production company. He lived in Dallas, Texas for 12 years and coordinated the sound team at their 3,500 member church. Luke and his wife, Natalee, run their own business providing a variety of creative and technical services and attends Titirangi Baptist Church.

VAUGHAN DENNISON is a family man with a heart for his community. Serving his sixth term as a City Councillor, Vaughan combines his passion for strong governance with his desire to use his background in operational management in ministry. This led to him to be part of the New Wine Executive team in 2017. Vaughan enjoys playing keys in his local church worship team and can provide the fun while getting things done!
